INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 1040, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 1040 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT TO DETERMINE DISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT

1. This complaint to determine the dischargeability of a debt in bankruptcy under Sections 523(a)(2)(A) of the Revised Bankruptcy Act (11 U.S.C. 523) commences an adversary proceeding within the meaning of Bankruptcy Rule 7001.
2. The above-named debtor has filed with this court a petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, Case No. 19-05530.
3. Plaintiff is a creditor of the debtor having filed a claim totaling $5,349.36.
4. Plaintiff is a department of the government of the State of Illinois charged with, among other things, the administration of the Illinois Unemployment Insurance Act. 820 ILCS 405/100 (1992) et seq.
5. Plaintiff seeks to have the debt owed to it by the debtor-defendant determined non-dischargeable.
6. Debtor-defendant obtained from plaintiff unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $11,957.00 to which she was not entitled by the use of false pretenses and false representations to plaintiff.

7. The false representations referred to in paragraph 6 consisted of debtor-defendant certifying that during the period of October 2, 2010 through February 26, 2011, she was unemployed, earned no wages, and was actively seeking work when in fact she was employed and earned wages from American Express.

8. Debtor-defendant did not report her employment or earnings even though she was aware of her duty to do so.

9. As a result of the above-stated false representations made by debtor-defendant to plaintiff, debtor-defendant received $11,957.00 in unemployment benefits to which she was not entitled.

10. Subsequent investigation undertaken by plaintiff disclosed that, during the aforesaid period, the debtor-defendant had knowingly failed to disclose her employment and earnings from American Express, for the purpose of obtaining unemployment benefits to which she was not entitled.

11. On December 5, 2011, an administrative decision was issued by plaintiff determining that the debtor-defendant knowingly failed to disclose her employment and earnings for the purpose of obtaining benefits to which she was not entitled. A copy of said decision is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "A."

12. Defendant has made payments totaling $6,607.64, reducing the principal balance to $5,349.36.

13. Pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, the debt owed to plaintiff by debtor-defendant is not dischargeable as it is a "debt for obtaining money by false pretenses, a false representation, or actual fraud."

14. On May 24, 2019 the Illinois Attorney General's Office received the Military Status Report from the United States Department of Defense, the report states that the defendant, LISA M. GOMEZ, is not currently on active military duty. Attached is an affidavit (Exhibit "G").

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that this court:

- a. Set the matter of the dischargeability of the debts owed from debtor-defendant to plaintiff for hearing;
- b. Find that said debt in the amount of $5,349.36 is not dischargeable;
- c. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just.

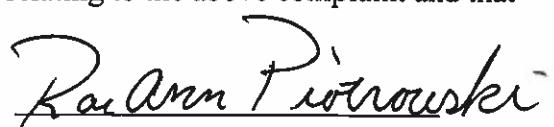

Respectfully submitted,
